A WOMAN IN JERUSALEM by A.B. Yehoshua , Hillel Halkin ...

Israeli novelist Yehoshua (The Liberated Bride, 2003, etc.) explores our obligations to the dead in an emotionally powerful novel. The central event—the death of a young woman—happens before the story opens, but informs all of what will come for the main character, an unnamed human-resources manager.

Now an award-winning feature film The Human Resources Manager A suicide bomb explodes in a Jerusalem market. One of the victims is a migrant worker without any papers, only a salary slip from the bakery where she worked as a night cleaner. As her body lies unclaimed in the morgue, her employers are labelled unfeeling and inhuman by a local
