Liz Czukas ASK AGAIN LATER is a hilarious romp through two very different prom nights, each with its own story based on the flip of a coin. Heart is the kind of narrator you'll love rooting for: self-deprecating, brutally honest, and charmingly quirky. A Molly Ringwald for the next generation.

Overall, even though I know that Ask Again Later is meant to be a light, funny, fluffy book, there were just too many things in the book that just didn't rub me in the right way. In the end, Ask Again Later and I just didn't click.

Ask Again Later was one of my most highly anticipated debuts of winter 2014 and it's with a heavy heart I admit I was disappointed. It could be very good with a little more work and a snip here or there to get rid of the worst, but as it was when I read it, it was so-so at best.
