Dark Woods wasn't what I was expecting it to be at all. A boy called Cal is on holiday to Montana with his foster parents where he meets a girl called Eden in the early morning and they decide to go exploring beyond their campsite before the others wake up. There is a scientist called Jefferson who

Dark Woods will find a wide readership - from horror fans, through thriller addicts right through to those who like reading about social issues and emotional conflict. Recommended. My thanks to the good people at Faber for sending the book. If they like a good thriller, they might also enjoy Buried Thunder by Tim Bowler in which the woods also contain some nasty secrets. We can also recommend
