Escape into Danger: The True Story of a Kievan Girl in ...

Escape into Danger provides unusual, intimate views of prewar Soviet life and German society during the war. Sophia's descriptions, expectations, and interactions are detailed, colorful, and engaging. Her recklessness and lack of perspective are revealing, keeping the story true to her understanding of the time and the real danger that she faced.

Escape into Danger: The True Story of a Kievan Girl in ...

Sophia Williams has recorded her harrowing, improbably "escape" to Germany at the height of WWII and her life afterwards. She is spunky, intelligent and an excellent writer. As a reader, you feel like you are right there with her on her life's journey, rooting her on and continually amazed at the many unexpected turns you take together.
