Fall of a Kingdom by Hilari Bell - Goodreads

Fall of a Kingdom was a title I picked up for its cover art. I had the book for about three months before I actually got into the story. I found the story a bit slow in the beginning, but then what story isn't? Once I got to know the characters the story took off I couldn't wait to read what happened next to each of the characters. I loved how Bell wrote each chapter from the view of one of

Hilari Bell (Author of Fall of a Kingdom) - Goodreads
Hilari Bell said: " An interesting book, in a lot of ways. There are a few things that are a bit off for me, but I don't think that most readers will find a heroine who leads with her heart instead of her head at all a problem.

Somehow, Fall of a Kingdom falls victim to what is typically a second book slump, even though it is the first book in a series. Here is what I was able to understand of the Farsalan culture: The kingdom of Farsala is made up mostly of plains, though it has swamps on the coast, and mountains, cliffs, and deserts as well.
