Far Cry by John Harvey - Goodreads

Far cry by John Harvey is a very well crafted suspense crime drama. It is full of twists and turns, and red herrings here and there. I could not put it down until I knew how it ended. The line of suspense was taut and maintained throughout.

Harvey forges a seamless union between his narrative and some cogent aper us about British society. In Far Cry, one of his subjects is the rights of the individual. Ruth Pierce and her husband's

PETRONA: Book Review: Far Cry by John Harvey

Far Cry is the second in John Harvey's series set in the Fens of eastern England, and is simply a superb type-example of a crime novel. The recurring characters are the unlikeable DI Will Grayson and his sergeant Helen Walker, a more interesting yet somewhat enigmatic, less realised, figure.
