Fugitive Blue, by Claire Thomas
Fugitive Blue is an interesting story beautifully written and there is much to like about it, but I am a bit puzzled by its longlisting for the 2009 Miles Franklin because the work, for all its self-evident merits, is not really true to the spirit of the MF award.

Fugitive blue Claire Thomas | Fictitious

Fugitive Blue tells the story of a young art conservator and her work on an unusual panel painting in striking ultramarine. As she restores the fragile artwork, she begins to speculate on its provenance - its controversial creation in Renaissance Venice and reappearance three hundred years later during a young nobleman's Grand Tour.
