God Lost and Found by John Pritchard - Goodreads
This is a wonderful, wise book for Christians who may be struggling in their religious lives. I love the depth of Bishop Pritchard's experience and the way he quotes from Christians and non Christians about the experience of 'losing' the sense of God in the daily practice of faith.

Many of us who attend church regularly feel we have lost touch with a living experience of God. John Pritchard draws deeply on his own experience of dark times in order to shed light on what we may be going through ourselves. He then offers starting points from which we might rediscover and re-imagine a more realistic faith in the God
