Margaret George

Margaret George the reigning queen of historical fiction – is back with this epic saga A twisted mother-son obsession, a struggle for survival, and dastardly deeds play out on a tapestry of luxury and bloodshed.

Entering the World of Helen of Troy Margaret George

Helen lived if she lived at all around 1200 BC, in an era we call the Mycenaean age of Greece. Helen actually came from Sparta, not Troy, but she became forever Helen of Troy when she eloped with the Trojan prince Paris, launching a thousand ships, (and today, a thousand hair-care products named after her).

Margaret George Quotes (Author of The Autobiography of ...

95 quotes from Margaret George: 'So I learned two things that night, and the next day, from him: the perfection of a moment, and the fleeting nature of it.' It is almost impossible to describe happiness, because at the time it feels entirely natural, as if all the rest of your life has been the aberration; only in retrospect does it swim into
