Horse Latitudes by Morris Collins Dzanc Books

Morris Collins's Horse Latitudes is a historically attuned novel for a world that has lost its way. Stumbling toward nightmare realizations, Horse Latitudes is a novel with the edge of the thriller and the bleak rawness of a documentary feral, needful, and unapologetic about the dark underbellies it reveals.

Word origin of 'horse latitudes' C18; referring either to the high mortality of horses on board ship in these latitudes or to dead horse (nautical slang: advance pay), which sailors expected to work off by this stage of a voyage

Book Marks reviews of Horse Latitudes by Morris Collins

Collins has a knack for witty dialogue and vivid descriptions of shantytowns, coastal towns, guerilla violence, and roadside poverty. Unfortunately, the beautiful prose that makes most of the novel so enjoyable gets in the way towards the end gripping and wildly entertaining Morris Collins is an author to watch.
