Punchlines by Oliver Phommavanh - Goodreads
My second book by Phommavanh and even better than the first. This one is aimed older, with the protagonist age 16, chasing both a career and a girlfriend throughout the book. The book is very funny, again very relatable and a great quick read.

Punchlines is about a boy trying to be funny to get the girl. It's the story of my life, give or take a few semi-fictional characters. I've drawn from my own journey of a class clown graduating to a comedian.

ALPHA reader: 'Punchlines' by Oliver Phommavanh
Punchlines is the new Australian YA novel from Oliver Phommavanh. I read Oliver Phommavanh's second book, Con-Nerd last year and really enjoyed it. He wrote a fantastic coming-of-age book about cross-generational rifts and family pressure, and I promised myself I'd chase up any other books he wrote.
