The Sky Isn't Visible from Here Felicia C. Sullivan The list goes on and on, and the sadness builds with every page of Sullivan's memoir, The Sky Isn't Visible from Here, as it becomes clear that the author's efforts to be a good girl did not capture her mother's attention. Sullivan evokes the tempo of her confusing existence by jumping from the present to the past and back again; no

The Sky Isn't Visible from Here book by Felicia C. Sullivan

The Sky Isn't Visible from Here, by Felicia Sullivan, has reawakened an interest in memoirs that had gone dull with dull reading. There's nothing dull here, thank God. What Sullivan gives us, instead, is the urgent cry from the darkest places, and what the reader is left with, at story's end, is an affirmation of humanity itself. We who read are in her debt, and if you haven't read the book
