The book itself is fine - interesting, lively and thoughtful. BUT the problem is with the presentation. All the way through there were omissions of spaces between sentences. This is very, very irritating. I believe editors are needed as this is the third book presented to me with frequent omissions. There's A Bear In There by Merridy Eastman - Goodreads

There's a Bear in There and He wants Swedish, like the famous Australian novel name-dropped on the cover, is a bullshit-free zone. Like Miles Franklin, Eastman is funny, caring and not easily intimidated.
